John Duval is one of the world's best known winemakers coming from a family that boasts four generations of South Australian vignerons. He has been saluted many times on the world stage, notably International Winemaker of the Year 1989 and twice Red Winemaker of the Year 1991 and 2000.

Toward the end of 2002, John retired from Southcorp after a distinguished career of 28 years, including 16 years as Chief Winemaker for Penfolds. John embarked on the development of his own label in 2003 using old vine Barossa Valley fruit and has created two stunning wines that reflect the terroir of the Barossa and the handcrafted attention of John Duval.

TASTING NOTES

2014 Plexus White

Marsanne, Roussanne & Viognier

BAROSSA VALLEY, SA

$ 55

Attractive pale straw in colour. Aromas of stone fruits, honeysuckle and dried apricot. Medium bodied with good texture, dry finish and balanced acidity. Flavours of nectarine, mandarin and pear make for good food pairings with seafood to white meats.

2014 Entity Shiraz

BAROSSA Valley, SA

$ 74

Deep purple red in colour. Dark fruit expression of blackberry and plum, gives way to some lifted floral notes and savoury spicy French oak. Full bodied and generous with excellent concentration of blackberry fruit. Textured layers of fruit, balanced acidity and fine, long tannins will enable good cellar potential.

2013 Eligo Shiraz

BAROSSA VALLEY, SA

$ 129

Dense purple-red in colour. Savoury berry, spice nose. Blackberry and blueberry with hints of liquorice and dark chocolate. Elegant expression of dark fruit concentrated layers of berry, earthy savouriness and smoked meat flavours. Long and intense with excellent texture and balanced tannin structure.
